

League of States General Activity & Strategies Listed By State Affiliate

	IMH Graduate Programs	Certificate/Non-Degree Programs	Training Programs
Arizona 2010	Arizona State University: Master of Advanced Studies in Infant Family Practice	Harris Institute for Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health non-degree training program	Six day training series of in-service trainings (variety of IMH topics) Every other year Risk to Resilience Institute
Arizona 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010	-Customized sessions to fit contracted program staff -Initiating IMH course block within existing Community College Early Childhood degree program -Baby CASA training and RS support
Connecticut 2010	N/A	N/A
Connecticut 2011	N/A	N/A	8 session series on Knowledgeable and Skillful Practice to Promote Your Work with Infants/Toddlers and Their Families. 10 hours of Introduction to Reflective Supervision Annual Spring (1/2day)and Fall(1-2 days) conferences with Competency related topics. We will be offering reflective supervision to Part C providers and Early Head Start supervisors in 2012.
Indiana 2010	N/A	Purdue University & Indiana University: 12 hour certificate in Early Childhood Mental Health Indiana Division of Mental Health & Addiction: One year training program for 10 CMHC workers to earn Level III endorsement	-Annual Infant Mental Health Conference -½ day workshop annually on IMH issues & professional development
Indiana 2011	N/A	We piloted 2 courses toward a certificate this summer at the IU School of Social Work (3 hours Advanced issues course and a DC 0-3 R 1 hour course) 10 participants completed the Intensive in 2010-2012 cohort. IAITMH received a second year of funding from DMHA for the Intensive and there are 12 people enrolled.	Annual conference continues We are providing 3 hr course to Healthy Families Statewide in 2011-2012 We have been approached to partner with an addiction group to do a combined conference in 2011 We are working with HF and Nurse Family Partnership to identify any gaps in their curricula that would need to be filled to support their workers to attain Endorsement
Kansas 2010	N/A	On-line course on the Social/Emotional Development of Infants and Toddlers	-Annual Infant Mental Health Conference -Many trainings offered: DECA, DC:0-3R, Endorsement Overview, etc.
Kansas 2011	N/A	N/A	- Annual Infant Mental Health Conference - Professional Development events in collaboration with other state organizations (ASQ:SE, etc.)
Michigan 2010	Wayne State University: Graduate Certificate in Infant Mental Health Michigan State University: Interdepartmental Graduate Specialization in Infancy & Early Childhood	University of Michigan: School of Social Work "mini-courses"	-Biennial Infant Mental Health Conference -Knowledgeable and Skillful Practice Series: Supporting Your Work With Infants, Toddlers and Families -Many trainings offered: Culture, Trauma, Postpartum, DC:0-3R, IMH Theory & Practice, Social/Emotional Development, etc. -Offers many collaborative trainings with outside sponsors

Michigan 2011	WSU Program in last year as graduate certificate; planning to become dual degree program with social work, education & nursing; MSU program continues University of Michigan considering reviving its IMH certificate program All three are aligning curricula with competencies	UM "mini-courses" continue with plans for others to be developed in 2012, e.g. 5 session, 3 hours per session, introduction to infant mental health Madonna University, Dept. of Psychology, Infant Observation course and IMH course	3-day biennial conference hosted in May Training series offered, some by contract with a system/agency Sponsor training to support competency of providers of reflective supervision/consultation DC: 0-3R offered in collaboration with MDCH Co-sponsor with chapters & universities: broadcast training to multiple sites
Minnesota 2010	University of Minnesota: Infant & Early Childhood Mental Health Certificate Program	CEED on-line courses in Infant Mental Health	Many trainings offered: Basics of IMH, attachment, regulatory issues, etc.
Minnesota 2011	same as 2010	Post baccalaureate certificate program (three years for clinicians, two years for others)	-Annual Minnesota Association of Children's Mental Health conference with IMH/early childhood track; Trainings offered include reflective consultation, DC: 0-3, social-emotional dev , working w/parents. -Variety of trainings offered by endorsed practitioners year round. -Annual Strong Foundations B-3 conference/intensive training institute. Ongoing online course offerings (currently for continuing education hours – soon to be offered for optional academic credit). Plans are underway to develop a comprehensive online program focused on infant and early childhood mental health.
Texas 2010	University of Texas at Dallas: Human Development & Childhood Disorders Graduate Program (aligned curriculum with Level II competencies)	N/A	-Biennial Infant Mental Health Advocacy Award and Conference -Food for Thought Series -A series of 6 trainings provided to child care providers (Level I competencies)
Texas 2011	Same as 2010	N/A	-24 hours of curriculum-based (competency-based) training to 60 child care providers in Houston -24 hours of competency-based training to 30 CPS workers in Houston -Annual Meeting (day long mini-conference with 2 speakers) -Many of our chapters provide monthly or semi-monthly trainings in their areas
Wisconsin 2010	N/A	University of Wisconsin: Infant, Early Childhood and Family Mental Health Certificate Program with 2 tracks (Advanced Clinical Practice Certificate—Level III and a Foundations Certificate—Level II)	-Biennial WI-AIMH Conference -Biennial One Day Training Institute -DC:0-3R trainings -Involved in providing a pyramid model of training from the Center for Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning
Wisconsin 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010	-some certificate program speakers open to general public
Idaho 2010	N/A	N/A	Biennial Early Childhood Conference
Idaho 2011	N/A	N/A	-Biennial Early Childhood Conference -Annual Children's Mental Health Conference -General meetings in 2012 will include an educational component with CEUs
Colorado 2010	Harris Fellow Program in Infant Mental Health & Child Development	N/A	-Biennial 2 Day Conference -Biennial Advance Clinical Training Day

Colorado 2011	Harris Fellow Program in Child Development & Infant Mental Health	In development: web-based ECMH Consultation Training Course with certificate offered upon completion	same as above & DC 0-3R annual training CoAIMH quarterly Bob Harmon Memorial Clinical Lecture
Alaska 2010	University of Alaska Anchorage: Children's Behavioral Health Graduate Certificate	N/A	N/A
Alaska 2011	same as 2010-includes info on 0-3 population but not the focus	University is working on a mental health certificate	-Annual Early Mental Health Conference -Alaska is a TACSEI state -training to child care centers. -Course in Child Trauma to be offered by university in spring 2012 -Early Childhood Learning Network/ECMH Consultation -Training in child trauma by Alaska Child Mental Health Services
New Mexico 2010	Santa Fe Private College: Children's Mental Health Certificate Program	N/A	-NMAIMH annual meetings include trainings -Offers trainings in: DC:0-3R, trauma, & culture
New Mexico 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010	same as 2010
Oklahoma 2010	N/A	University of Central Oklahoma & University of Oklahoma-Tulsa: provide IMH classes	-Biannual trainings "Keeping Infants in Mind" -Annual membership meetings include trainings
Oklahoma 2011		Oklahoma is currently working with OU and OSU to implement an IMH Certificate program. Infant mental health courses are also taught at University of Central Oklahoma and OSU-OKC Extension.	Bi-Annual Conference; on off years we partner with the International Infant Toddler Conference to include content specific to IMH. The Association also provides a variety of IMH trainings as requested throughout the year.
Virginia 2010	N/A	N/A	N/A
Virginia 2011	N/A	N/A	The Virginia Department of Social Services awarded grants for 6 infant and toddler pilot sites with a focus on supporting social emotional development. Trainings have been offered through those pilots but funds end December 2011. Two Train the Trainer events using the Center for Social Emotional Foundations of Early Learning Pyramid Model Framework and materials were held in September and October. Current plans underway for the development of annual training sponsored by the VAIMH and linkage with VCU's Spring and Fall Children's Mental Health Conference.

	Identified Reflective Supervision Faculty	IMH Research Projects	Funding for IMH Programs/Trainings
Arizona 2010	Arizona has a reflective supervision registry on its website, which is primarily made up of qualified providers who are endorsed at Level III and Level IV	N/A	St. Luke's Health Initiatives TAP grant to develop grant proposal; Lodestar Foundation start-up grant to implement Endorsement.

<http://www.mi-aimh.org/league-of-states>

Arizona 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010	same as 2010
Connecticut 2010	N/A	N/A	-Child Health and Development Institute: funds current reflective supervision -DSS ARRA: funds provide scholarships for 8-10 individuals in the RS trainings -CT Workforce Collaborative for Behavioral Health: funds speakers for 2 part series for home visitors
Connecticut 2011	CT has 8 providers endorsed at levels III and IV. Not posted yet.	Will be involved with a recently awarded DCF/Early Childhood grant that involves evaluation by Walter Giliam, Yale.	CT-AIMH will receive funding from Dept of Children and families, Dept of Developmental Services, Child Health&Development Institute, Office of Head start Collaboration. Dept of Public Health and a local LAUNCH grant are helping to fund our annual conferences.
Indiana 2010	N/A	IUSOM and PU Calumet: research on reflective practice	ISDH, DMHA, Part C, Bureau of Child Development, Head Start, and DCS: combined funds to provide IMH trainings and endorsement throughout the state
Indiana 2011	N/A	same as 2010	same as 2010
Kansas 2010	Kansas has a reflective supervision registry on its website, which displays all IMH-E endorsees	N/A	-Part C: funds mental health consultants for Head Start -Kansas Early Learning Collaborative: funds Early Childhood Mental Health Consultants -United Methodist Health Ministry Fund: funds trainings and support for endorsement
Kansas 2011	Six Level III and IV Reflective Supervisors are contracted with KAIMH to provide 24 and 50-hour groups statewide	N/A	- Part C: funds 2 applicants in each of the 37 network s o complete endorsement - Kansas Early Learning Collaborative: funds 7 Early Childhood Mental Health Consultants in local organizations throughout Kansas - United Methodist Health Ministry Fund: funding to support Endorsement Administration
Michigan 2010	Michigan has a reflective supervision registry on its website, which is made of qualified providers who are endorsed at Level III and Level IV	Joan Abbey is conducting a 3 year evaluation of IMH home-based services	Detroit-Wayne County: funds to provide training for IMH specialists providing services in the Detroit-Wayne County area
Michigan 2011	Same as 2010	Michigan taking the lead in developing IMH Home Visiting standards (Early Attachments) that will be used to establish IMH Home Visiting as evidenced-based practice	Detroit-Wayne County contract continued in 2011 MI-AIMH and Detroit-Wayne County awarded Flinn Foundation grant to develop training series for practitioners to move from Level II to Level III Macomb Great Start and Early Head Start contracts for training Collaboration with Michigan Dept of Community Health for training for providers of RSC & DC: 0-3R Contract with Wyoming TANF preschools & Headstart to provide RSC training and on-going consultation groups for CLASS consultants
Minnesota 2010	N/A	N/A	N/A
Minnesota 2011	Minnesota has a registry of consultants endorsed at levels III&IV through the Association, who provide RC around the state to a variety of 0-3 providers	Outcome measures for QRS ref consult project	DHS grant funding ref sup to participating 0-3 CTSS providers; MDE funding ref sup to QRS consultants
Texas 2010	In the process of setting up a reflective supervision registry, which will be made up of qualified providers	N/A	-Workforce Boards in Corpus Christi & Austin: funds to provide IMH trainings and to cover membership and endorsement fees for those who are endorsed at Level III and Level IV		qualified for Level I or Level II endorsement -Federal Stimulus Funds: $4 million in federal stimulus funds to provide IMH trainings across Texas

Texas 2011	Our registry is now up on our website, which is made up of qualified providers, most of whom are endorsed at Level 4	N/A	-Hogg Foundation for Mental health is funding our IMH trainings for child care providers and CPS workers in Houston -Grants from other foundations, including the Meadows Foundation, Simmons Foundation, HEB Tournament of Champions, Shield-Ayers Foundation, McCume Foundation, Young Foundation, Rees Jones Foundation -Approximately 40% of our Brazelton conference cost is being paid for through conference sponsorships
Wisconsin 2010	N/A	N/A	-Part C ARRA: funds to support IMH system development and services and 2010 & 2011 WI-AIMH conferences -Division of Public Health: funds to support IMH service delivery -Mental Health Block Grant: funds to support IMH service delivery -Children's Trust Fund & Child Welfare: funds to support IMH service delivery
Wisconsin 2011	Set up reflective supervision registry Working with William Schafer, WI DCF and Project Launch to implement project on increasing capacity of reflective practice consultants available to home visiting programs.	same as 2010	same as 2010
Idaho 2010	N/A	N/A	ARRA: funds to support IMH trainings
Idaho 2011	-2 endorsed reflective supervisors -one group meeting with Wm Schafer	N/A	same as 2010 until August 2011
Colorado 2010	In the process of setting up a reflective supervision registry	N/A	N/A
Colorado 2011	same will have Endorsees available for RS posted on website	N/A	N/A
Alaska 2010	N/A	N/A	ECMH: funds for consultation, the Learning Network, and the TACSEI Project
Alaska 2011	-6 individuals are involved in a group reflective supervision with a Level 4-clinical -4 individuals received reflective supervision through the NAPA IMPH program	N/A	-ECMH funds for consultation, the Learning Network and TACSEI Project -Part C funds for 4 individuals to receive IMPH certification through the NAPA program
New Mexico 2010	N/A	N/A	New Mexico Children, Youth and Family Department: funds to support endorsement, funds to support IMH services for non-Medicaid infants and toddlers and funds for IMH clinical training
New Mexico 2011	NMAIMH has added a "Resource Directory" to our association website that includes endorsed members who have indicated willingness to serve as Reflective Supervisors/Consultants.	N/A	Continued funding as in 2010
Oklahoma	Two groups of reflective supervisors have begun to conduct reflective supervision for groups and	Research on reflective supervision with Paul Spicer	Oklahoma Department of Mental Health: funds a state Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health Coordinator

2010	individuals around the state
Oklahoma 2011	Oklahoma has a Reflective Supervision Registry with those willing to provide Reflective Supervision/Consultation. Those listed are Endorsed at Level III and IV	Paul Spicer continues to work in an advisory capacity on the Research on Reflective Supervision	Oklahoma Department of Mental Health - Promised to fund OK-AIMH Endorsment Program. Private and Individual grant/donation support being sought to help support Endorsment  Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Oklahoma State Department of Health share a postion for Oklahoma's infant and early childhood state coordiantor
Virginia 2010	N/A	N/A	N/A
Virginia 2011	Currently, endorsement candidates are receiving reflective supervision from Doug Davies, Michigan.	N/A	Funding from Dept. of Education, Dept. of Behavioral Health Part C and the Head Start Collaboration Office for state level Early Childhood Mental Health Training Coordinator position. Anticipate position filled by December 2011. Training funds were provided by Virginia Dept. of Social Services ARRA funding for the Infant Toddler SE pilot projects. Additional training and endorsement funds have been provided by Part C.

	IMH Service Delivery Requirements	IMH Policies in State
Arizona 2010	N/A	Arizona Behavioral Health System: Requests endorsement of at least one behavioral health provider in each service delivery network that works with children birth to five
Arizona 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010
Connecticut 2010	CT-AIMH: requires all trainers to complete a training summary for each of their trainings. This list will be available to advisors and reviewers.	N/A
Connecticut 2011	CT-AIMH does not provide direct service at this time. Child FIRST, developed by Dr. Darcy Lowell who is a CT-AIMH Board member, has recently been named an evidenced based practice for home visitors. It is an infant/early childhood mental health focused intervention. At this time endorsement is not required for staff. The program is being rolled out in selected communities across the state.	None yet
Indiana 2010	N/A	N/A
Indiana 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010
Kansas 2010	Kansas Department of Health and Environment (Part C): provides funding to KAIMH to support their staffs across the state to obtain endorsement. Funding pays for preliminary application fee, reflective supervision, endorsement fees and endorsement	N/A
Kansas 2011	KDHE Part-C Funding ended in September 2011	N/A

Michigan 2010	Michigan Department of Health: supports infant mental health home-visiting programs across the state. Many Early Head Start and Great Start programs now require/prefer to hire job applicants who have earned endorsement	Michigan Medicaid: Requires every practitioner who works for Community Mental Health and works for the 0-3 population be endorsed at Level II, minimum, Level III, preferred, in order to receive Medicaid reimbursement
Michigan 2011	MDCH continues to support IMH home visiting; collaborates with MI-AIMH to ensure model integrity MDCH Public Health nurses and social workers from Maternal Infant Health Program are also encouraged to seek endorsement	Same as 2010
Minnesota 2010	N/A	N/A
Minnesota 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010
Texas 2010	N/A	N/A
Texas 2011	N/A	N/A
Wisconsin 2010	N/A	Wisconsin State Child Care: in the process of implementing a quality rating system (Young Star). Social-emotional professional competence will be part of this rating scale—Endorsement may be considered
Wisconsin 2011	Wisconsin Children and Families: used infant mental health competencies to develop training plan for home visitors and will be supporting and requiring reflective supervision with the intention of requiring endorsement for home visitors and supervisors in the future.	Medicaid accepts the use of DC 0-3R in prior authorization process, working toward new policies for intensive in-home requirements to be more appropriate for IMH services.
Idaho 2010	N/A	N/A
Idaho 2011	N/A	N/A
Colorado 2010	N/A	Division of Behavioral Health: Discussions in process for Early Childhood Specialists to obtain a minimum of Level II endorsement
Colorado 2011	Project Launch in Weld County will work to have all direct service providers on project achieve Endorsement at appropriate level	same as 2010
Alaska 2010	N/A	N/A
Alaska 2011	N/A	N/A
New Mexico 2010	N/A	IMH Treatment Service Definition: New treatment service definition requires endorsement at L3 or L4 clinical for independently licensed mental health professionals to bill to provide their services to non-Medicaid eligible infants and toddlers who meet a definition for Seriously Emotionally Disturbed or At-Risk for Serious Emotional Disturbance
New Mexico 2011	same as 2010	Continued as described for 2010 - new service definition is being developed as a “step up/down” to the IMH Tx service that is anticipated to require minimum Infant Family Specialist endorsement, again using non-Medicaid funds.
Oklahoma 2010	Three agencies have included language in their job postings to include “Endorsed Preferred”	N/A
Oklahoma	same as 2010	Endorsement included in Oklahoma’s State Plan for Infant and Early Childhood

2011
Virginia 2010	N/A	N/A
Virginia 2011	N/A	Planning began this fall for a Policy Summit with key state level early childhood policy makers to be held in 2012. Endorsement is included in Virginia's Plan for Smart Beginnings.

	Co-Sponsors and Collaborative Organizations (Listed by Organization)	Ideas for Sustainability	State Affiliate Contact Information
Arizona 2010	Prevent Child Abuse Arizona, ITMHCA, ASU School of Social & Family Dynamics, Blake Foundation, CASA, ASU Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, First Things First, BOND, CARES	ITMHCA Board has members from the 3 major regions of the state, both young and old and some state agency representatives with political influence	Mary Warren: mary.g.warren@gmail.com Nicole Valdez: nvaldez@nvaldez.com Nicole Schuren: nschuren@yahoo.com
Arizona 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010	same as 2010
Connecticut 2010	Building Blocks, Connecticut Healthy Child Care, Head Start Collaboration Office, DSS, Child Health and Development Institute	Board includes state agency representatives	Judith Meyers Margaret Holmberg: margaret.holmberg@ct.metrocast.net
Connecticut 2011	All of the above plus: Department of Developmental Services, Promising Starts (a LAUNCH grant to New Britain, CT) and Dept of Public Health.	We are attracting younger professionals interested in infant mental health	margaret.holmberg@att.net ctaimh@yale.edu
Indiana 2010	Part C, Head Start, Healthy Families, Sunny Start	Working to increase capacity by targeting Level III and Level IV workers	Angela Tomlin: ATomlin@iupui.edu
Indiana 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010	same as 2010
Kansas 2010	Kansas Department of Health, Environment Developmental Disabilities Service, Kansas State University, Kansas Early Childhood Comprehensive Systems Plan	Continue to recruit KAIMH board members from across the state, encourage young professionals to volunteer, offer IMH professional development events	Shelley Mayse: smayse@thefamilyconservancy.org
Kansas 2011	Kansas Department of Health, Environment Developmental Disabilities Service, Kansas State University, University of Kansas, Kansas Early Childhood Comprehensive Systems Plan, United Methodist Health Ministry Fund, Project LAUNCH	Continue to recruit KAIMH board members from across the state, encourage young professionals to volunteer, offer IMH professional development events and Annual Conference	Shana Schmidt, Executive Director shana@kaimh.org
Michigan 2010	Wayne State University, Community Mental Health, Child Welfare Connections, NMCAA, Pine Rest, Munson Healthcare, Early Head Start, Great Start Collaborative	N/A	Deborah Weatherston: dweatherston@mi-aimh.org Nichole Paradis: nparadis@mi-aimh.org
Michigan 2011	MI Dept of Community Health, Detroit-Wayne County CMH Agency, Macomb County Great Start, Wayne State University, Michigan State University, University of Michigan, Virtual Center for Excellence of The Guidance Center, United Way	Transition to EASy should make the management, submission, review, and storage of endorsement applications and portfolio much more efficient MI-AIMH is experimenting with substituting Q&A call ins rather than recruiting, training, and assigning Endorsement Advisors MI-AIMH has increased some endorsement fees	Same as 2010 plus Sheryl Goldberg: sgoldberg@mi-aimh.org

<http://www.mi-aimh.org/league-of-states>

		Hope to more aggressively market products that can subsidize endorsement expenses Endorsement Fees going up in 2012
Minnesota 2010	Department of Education, Head Start, Early Head Start, Health and Human Services		Scott Harmon: sharman@stdavidscenter.org Christopher Watson: watso012@umn.edu
Minnesota 2011	same as 2010	same as 2010	Michele Fallon: whataboutthebaby@comcast.net
Texas 2010	AVANCE-Dallas, University of North Texas, Child Care Licensing, University of Texas at Dallas, LaunchAbility Early Childhood Intervention, Department of Family and Protective Services, ChildCare Group, Educational First Steps	Currently working with policy makers around improving the training requirements for licensed child care providers in Texas (ultimately hope to require all child care providers be endorsed at Level I). Currently also working to diversify TAIMH's board to make it more of an administrative board	Susan Craven: scraven@taimh.org Sarah Crockett: scrockett@taimh.org Barbara Einsohn: baeinsohn@sbcglobal.net Patty Miller: davpat12tx@aol.com
Texas 2011	Collaborative for Children, Harris County Infant/Toddler Court, Raising Texas, University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work, Parents as Teachers, Nurse Family Partnership	Currently have representation on the Texas Early Learning Council, which is developing Infant/Toddler Early Learning Guidelines for Texas. Also have representation on the Texas Fetal Alcohol Statewide Strategic Planning Initiative and representation on the Texas Early Childhood Professional Development System Council. Also have developed a curriculum for training child care providers on IMH, which we are selling and hoping to develop a web-based training based on the curriculum. We have also added two new chapters this year in Houston and San Antonio. We also always build endorsement fees into training grants we receive in order link our competency-based trainings to our endorsement system.	Same as 2010
Wisconsin 2010	Part C, Department of Children & Families, Department of Instruction, Wisconsin Early Childhood Association, Head Start, Children's Trust Fund, State Child Welfare	N/A	Therese Ahlers: tahlers@wiaimh.org
Wisconsin 2011	Project Launch	same as 2010	Janna Hack jhack@wiaimh.org Therese Ahlers: tahlers@wiaimh.org
Idaho 2010	Ada County Medical Continuing Education Board, Secure Beginnings, Consortium for Higher Education for the Preparation of Early Childhood Professions, Idaho Association for the Education of Young Children, Department of Health and Welfare, Council for Exceptional Children, Idaho Head Start Collaboration, Idaho Federation of Families	The Secure Beginnings Group is taking charge on the rule changes and working with policy makers. Idaho is receiving a board training from the Idaho Non-Profit Center as well	Carrie Mori: carrie@aimearlyidaho.org
Idaho 2011	Same as 2010	Plan to work with DHW on a Home Visiting grant. EC3 creating a subcommittee to support home visiting with infant mental health as one focus.	Carrie Mori: carrie@aimearlyidaho.org Carol Grise: grisec@dhw.idaho.gov
Colorado 2010	Irving Harris Program, Center for Family and Infant Interaction, FussyBaby Network, Office of Professional Development	N/A	Jordana Ash: jash@mhcbbc.org Stacey Bromberg: Stacey.bromberg@ucdenver.edu

Colorado 2011	same as 2010	Partnering with EC Councils across state, building competencies into variety of ece courses, teacher prep, new executive board will focus on Endorsement as one of main initiatives	Jordana Ash: jash@mhpccolorado.org
Alaska 2010	Early Childhood Comprehensive Systems, Early Intervention/Part C Program, Division of Behavioral Health, Bring the Kids Home Initiative, Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority, Head Start	N/A	Shirley Pittz: shirley.pittz@alaska.gov Erin Kinavey Gail Trujillo
Alaska 2011	same as 2010	-AK-AIMH seeking grants for training in reflective supervision and competencies	Shirley Pittz: shirley.pittz@alaska.gov Erin Kinavey: erin.kinavey@alaska.gov Gail Trujillo: gtrujillo@cfc.org
New Mexico 2010	Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation & Training, The Parent-Infant Study Center, UNM Center for Development & Disability, Westen NM University, NM Children, Youth and Families Department, NM Department of Health/Family Infant Toddler Program (IDEA, Part C)	Board members recruited statewide and increasingly pursuing endorsement. Executive Board will become more involved in endorsement decisions this year	Deborah Harris: debharris@newmexico.com Soledad Martinez: soledadp.martinez@state.nm.us Jacqui Van Horn: jacquivanhorn@comcast.net
New Mexico 2011	Same collaborative agencies as 2010	same as 2010	same as 2010
Oklahoma 2010	Smart Start Oklahoma, OKDMHSAS, OK DHS	N/A	Stacey Leakey: SLeakey@parentchildcenter.org Bonnie Bellah: bonnieb@oica.org
Oklahoma 2011	Smart Start Oklahoma; Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services; Parent Child Center of Tulsa; Schusterman Foundation; Center for Children and Families, Inc.; Child Care Resource Center	Recruiting new board members; implementation of individual donation capacity as well as private foundation support being sought	Bonnie Bellah; okaimh@gmail.com
Virginia 2010	N/A	N/A	N/A
Virginia 2011	VA Department of Behavioral Health & Developmental Services Part C, VA Department of Social Services, VA Department of Education, VA Department of Health, VA Child Care Resource and Referral Networ, State Head Start Collaboration Office, Department of Medical Assistance Services, CHIP of Virginia, Partnership for People with Disabilities, VCU Training and Technical Assistance Centers, United Way, VA Early Childhood Foundation, various non profits and private providers, ARC of Virginia Family Involvement Project, Children's Hospital of VA, Community Services Boards, MCV School of Allied Health Professionals, Family Preservation Services, Greater Richmond SCAN, Department of Human Services, MCV Child Development Center, Smart Beginnings, James Madison University Department of Psychology, Preschool Partners, Psychiatrists, Psychologists, LCSWs.	Continue to recruit representation on the Infant Mental Health Association from all areas of the state. A coordination position to keep the endorsement process moving and to expand child mental health work throughout the state. Following Policy Summit, development of policies related to the integration of the endorsement process into early childhood programs. Raise awareness of infant mental health. Acquire continued funding through the state agencies and other sources.	Bonnie Grifa Bonita.grifa@dbhds.virginia.gov